Jump Start This School Year with a Library Card!

Lancaster, TX – “The Lancaster community is the best place to live with excellent schools and educational opportunities...” The City of Lancaster is proud of the many educational opportunities available in the community. With the provision of a safe and friendly atmosphere, many students utilize the Library to study outside school facilities. The Lancaster Veterans Memorial Library offers state of the art services including downloadable e-books made available for smart phones and tablets; online homework help services, with real time online assistances; online databases giving students credible sources for informational projects; a comprehensive genealogical resource center; and various ongoing educational classes.

Services offered at the Lancaster Veterans Memorial Library are continuing to expand, giving library card holders valuable resources. Library cards are free to Lancaster residents and $20.00 for non-residents. The Lancaster Veterans Memorial Library is located at 1600 Veterans Memorial Parkway. For more information call (972) 227-1080 or visit the Library online at www.lancaster-tx.com/library.
