Lancaster's U12 RBI Team Went to Minneapolis!

Lancaster, TX – The RBI Classic is an initiative that was began for Junior RBI teams, U12 (Ages 12 and under) to get youth excited to play in the Senior RBI baseball teams. Recently Lancaster's Junior RBI team was one of twelve teams chosen to have an all-expense paid trip to Minneapolis to go to the Major League Baseball's All Star Week games and events; including MLB Fan Fest, Celebrity Softball Game, MLB Home Run Derby and Futures Games.. At the RBI Classic, Lancaster played teams from around the country and Canada; Mount Vernon, New York; Toronto, Canada, Birmingham, Alabama; St. Paul/Minneapolis, Minnesota; Miami, Florida; Baltimore, Maryland and several others. Every field that Lancaster played in was newly refurbished by the Cal Ripken Sr. Foundation. While at the RBI Classic, Lancaster's 12U team also attended a Cal Ripken Camp and was welcomed by Cal Ripken Junior.

The Lancaster Junior RBI team played seven games over six days. In addition to playing baseball, the team had first-hand experience serving others. At Concordia University, the team packaged food for homeless people around the world.
