“Literacy in the Park” Presented By State Representative Helen Giddings

Lancaster, TX – As September is Library Card Sign-up Month, and National Literacy Month, State Representative Helen Giddings will present “Literacy in the Park” on September 6, 2014 at Lancaster Community Park in the Helen Giddings Amphitheater. This event will create awareness on the importance of Literacy and will give Lancaster students returning back to school the most important school supply of all – a FREE library card. The event will be culminated with a family friendly movie in the park, Akeelah and The Bee. Activities for the evening will include literacy performances, storytelling, bounce houses, face painting, photo opportunities with Clifford the Big Red Dog, Library program demonstrations, Friends of the Library book give away, Recreation Center program demonstrations, food vendors and author/movie producer autograph sessions.

The festivities will begin at 7:00 p.m. at Lancaster Community Park’s Helen Giddings Amphitheater, located at 1700 Veterans Memorial Parkway, behind the Lancaster Recreation Center and the Lancaster Veterans Memorial Library. For more information call (972) 224-6795.
