Lancaster Masonic Lodge #160 Donates to the Friends of the Lancaster Fire Department

Lancaster, TX – Christmas came early this year for the Friends of the Lancaster Fire Department Association as members of the Lancaster Masonic Lodge #160 dropped by the Lancaster Public Safety Building with a donation of $1000. “We are sincerely thankful for their generosity” stated Assistant Fire Chief, Pat Adamcik. “This donation will be used for our annual firefighter awards banquet and to purchase fire education prevention material to assist us in teaching our elementary students fire safety.”

Members of the Lancaster Masonic Lodge #160 that visited the Lancaster Fire Department included: Jerry Peck (Secretary), Micheal Junkin (Lodge Master), and James Burns (Junior Warden).
