Lancaster ISD Police Department to Host “Project SOS”

Lancaster, TX – On Wednesday, January 14, 2015 the Lancaster ISD Police Department will be hosting a forum titled, “Project SOS” which stands for “Saving Our Students.” The forum will begin at 6:00 p.m. at the Lancaster High School Auditorium located at 200 E. Wintergreen Road. Designed to be a collaborative forum for students, parents and community members to understand the role of law enforcement agencies in governing communities, the attendees will have the chance to connect and learn from school district, City of Lancaster and Dallas County law enforcement personnel.

“Specifically, we want to help students, parents and the community to understand the role of law enforcement on every level,” said Lancaster ISD Sergeant Alvin Johnson, the event coordinator. Other topics to be discussed during the community forum will be the complaint process, the importance of voting, the importance of being active in the community and the use of force continuum. Special guest speakers will include Dallas County Constable Roy Williams, Dallas County Court Judge Amber Givens, Honorable Municipal Judge Henry Campbell, and the Honorable Judge Valencia Nash and several others.

The City of Lancaster is proud to partner with the LISD Police Department and strongly supports the Project SOS initiative. By working together, Lancaster will continue to be a safer place to live, work and play. For more information on “Project SOS”, please contact the Lancaster ISD Police Department at (972) 218-1648.
