Lancaster Donations & Assistance Center Serves Over 900 Residents

Lancaster, TX – The City of Lancaster Donations & Assistance Center (DAC) has provided services for over 900 residents since it opened on Friday, April 6th. Additional hours of operation are available on Monday and Tuesday, April 9th and 10th from 8:00 a.m. through 8:00 p.m. at 200 E. Wintergreen Road.

Residents are encouraged to visit the center as long as they have need for assistance as many times as needed. The DAC was established as a resource center for those in need of donations and services during the disaster recovery from the April 3rd tornado. All individuals with any damage to their home or with any need as a result of the tornado are welcome to take advantage of the services being offered.
