LPD Delivers Thanksgiving To Lancaster Residents Lancaster Police Department

Lancaster, TX – On Tuesday, November 20, 2012, the Lancaster Police Department’s Community Outreach Division delivered Thanksgiving dinner to citizens in need. Deliveries included turkeys and trimmings for each family to enjoy during the upcoming holiday. “It’s a blessing to receive a gift like this when you need it” shared one recipient.

In December Lancaster Police Department will partner with the Lancaster Fire Department to collect canned goods and toys. These items will be donated to the Lancaster Outreach Center and donations will be accepted at the Lancaster Public Safety Building, Lancaster Recreation Center and City Hall.

When asked to comment regarding the outreach initiative Lancaster Police Chief Larry Flatt said, “It’s our duty and pleasure to serve this community and these families during the holiday season. We hope that we’ve done that through this program.”
