Lancaster Selected for New BMW Distribution Facility

Lancaster, TX – BMW of North America has selected Lancaster, Texas for their newest U.S. based parts distribution facility.

The approximately 300,000 square foot building will be constructed in the ProLogis 20/35 Park located on Daniieldale Road near Interstate Highway 20. BMW plans to complete and open the facility before the end of 2013. Over 65 new local primary payroll jobs will be created as a result of the project.

Lancaster Mayor Marcus E. Knight commented on Lancaster being selected, “Lancaster continues to attract major corporations seeking solutions to their logistics needs. We welcome BMW of North America and are excited to add them to our growing list of national corporations making a major investment of people and financial resources in Lancaster”.
