Lancaster hosts MLB Legends for Youth Skills Camp

Lancaster, TX – To kick off the Best Southwest Juneteenth Celebration the City of Lancaster has partnered with the Major League Baseball Players Alumni Association to conduct the Legends for Youth Skills Camp beginning Saturday, June 15, 2013 at 9:00 a.m., with a sports camp at City Park located at 211 W. Beltline Road, Lancaster, TX 75146 and concluding Monday, June 17, 2013 with a pizza party at the Texas Rangers Youth Park located at 1000 Ballpark Way in Arlington, Texas.

Legends for Youth is a charitable program conducted nationwide by the MLB Alumni Association. Its mission is to promote the game of baseball to America's youth using positive sports images and personalities through the fundamentals of the game and life skills.
