CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Mayor Pro Tem Racheal Hill is an experienced engineering professional, space enthusiast and civic leader. Racheal received her Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering from Tuskegee University. She earned her Master of Business Administration degree from Texas A&M University - Commerce. She is pursuing her Doctor of Engineering degree in Engineering Management at The George Washington University, School of Engineering and Applied Science.

Racheal is passionate about educating youth in the fields of science, technology, engineering, and math (STEM). Her passion for STEM outreach and education led her to being selected to serve as a Solar System Ambassador for NASA/Jet Propulsion Laboratory. The Solar System Ambassadors Program is a public outreach program designed to work with motivated volunteers across the nation to communicate the excitement of the Jet Propulsion laboratory (JPL) space exploration missions and information about recent discoveries to people in their local communities.

Racheal has partnered with the Lancaster Veteran's Memorial Library and hosted space themed youth educational outreach programs. She has served on numerous panels that focus on women in STEM and has presented at various conferences for the National Society of Black Engineers (NSBE). Additionally, she has led efforts to charter several NSBE Jr. Chapters.

Racheal has a long-standing history of service with the City of Lancaster. She has served as the Chair of the Planning and Zoning Commission, a member of the Comprehensive Land Use Plan Committee, a member of the Cedar Valley College Presidential Search Advisory Committee and a graduate of the City of Lancaster Civic Leadership Academy. Racheal holds the designation of Certified Municipal Officer (CMO) from the Texas Municipal League (TML).

Mayor Pro Tem Racheal Hill serves the great Dallas/Fort Worth community-at-large through her memberships in Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Jack and Jill of America, Inc., the Junior League of Dallas, and the Links, Incorporated.
