Mitchell E Cheatham, serving as a Council Member since May 2022, embodies the essence of servant leadership in Lancaster's City Council. Elected Deputy Mayor Pro Tem and subsequently as Mayor Pro Tem for 2023, his dedication to the city's welfare is unwavering.

A 33-year resident of Lancaster, Mitchell's commitment to community service is palpable. He prioritizes the well-being of Lancaster's youth and seniors, actively supporting initiatives for their benefit. Mitchell's vision for Lancaster focuses on attracting quality businesses, diverse dining options, and housing variety to foster growth and development.

His extensive community contributions include:

- Founding membership in the Meadow Creek Homeowners Association and instrumental roles in establishing the Meadow Creek Neighborhood Park.
- Past presidency of the Frazier Berean Group and volunteering in the Dallas Leadership Christmas Giveaway.
- Mentoring with Big Brothers Big Sisters of America and former presidency of the Meadow Creek HOA.
- Former assistant coaching in the Lancaster Lil Tiger Football League
- Recognition with the Dallas Tennis Association Volunteer Lee Hamilton Award and participation in multiple March of Dimes events and Dallas Thanksgiving Day Turkey Trots.
- Membership in the DeSoto Police and Clergy (DPAC) and service as a liaison for the Cancer Ministry, Church First Responders Ministry, and DPAC Domestic Violence Awareness.

Mitchell's exemplary service has earned him recognition, including the Dallas Times Herald Sales Support of the Year award and the Dallas Tennis Association Volunteer Lee Hamilton Award. Beyond civic duties, Mitchell cherishes family life, being married with three children. His interests span gardening, woodworking, travel, and a passion for music.
