City of Lancaster Leaders Celebrate 103rd Birthday of Local Resident

Lancaster, TX – Lancaster Mayor and City staff came together to celebrate the 103rd birthday of local Lancaster resident, Mrs. Susie Williams.

Mrs. Williams is described by her daughter and caretakers as very inquisitive, independent and a lover of reading. Some may call her a “book worm.” She still attends her weekly bible study meetings. When asked how it feels to celebrate her 103rd birthday, she remarked, “Only the grace of God.”

She was presented with flowers and gifts from the Mayor Hairston and city staff, while surrounded by friends, family, and church members. She was very happy to pose for pictures to send to her three daughters, six grandchildren, and five great grandchildren.

Lancaster Mayor Hairston noted, “This is a very special occasion and we are excited to celebrate the joyous milestones that Mrs. Williams has reached in her lifetime.”

May marks the beginning of Older Americans Month. The City of Lancaster recognizes the vital role that older adults play in the vitality of neighborhoods, networks, and lives.
